

CONTACT:
Tim Telman, President and CEO
Bank of Cape Cod
508-568-2301, fax 508-420-8858
Email: ttelman@bankofcapecod.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bank of Cape Cod Announces Election of New Director, prominent local developer Charles F. Doe, Jr. (Chad).

Hyannis, MA, September 3 – President and CEO Tim Telman announced today that Charles F. Doe, Jr. (Chad) was elected to the Board of Directors of Bank of Cape Cod.

Chad is a well-known member of the Hyannis business community dedicated to the revitalization and redevelopment of the Hyannis downtown business district. His larger projects include the 22 unit mixed use Stoneridge Crossing at the site of the former Storyland Miniature Golf; an 80,000 s.f. mixed use condo project at the site of the former Greenery Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center; and the repositioning of 52,000 s.f. of commercial space at 540 Main Street, Hyannis. Prior to his role in local commercial development, Chad and his family built and owned the Ninety-Nine Restaurant Group of New England which they sold in 2002. Chad resides in Osterville.

“We couldn’t be more thrilled to have Chad join our Board of Directors” said Bank of Cape Cod President and CEO, Tim Telman. “Chad brings a strong business background, to the Board along with a great reputation in the local community.”

About Bank of Cape Cod

With a primary focus on the region’s small businesses, Bank of Cape Cod is the only locally owned and managed commercial bank on Cape Cod and has locations in Hyannis and Osterville.